The story that captured the imagination of the world... In 1969 Harrods department store in London sold a three month old lion cub to two young Australians, John Rendall and Anthony (Ace) Bourke. They called him Christian. For a year Christian lived happily and safely with John and Ace and his human 'pride', initially in the World's End on the King's Road in Chelsea, where Derek Cattani first began photographing him. When Christian outgrew his London environment he was entrusted to the care of George Adamson in Kenya, who with his wife Joy, had successfully rehabilitated their lioness Elsa, the subject of Joy's Book Born Free. A year after Christian had been living in the wild John and Ace returned to Kenya to try and find him.

ITM PUBLICATIONS

Europe Western: Railroad & Road, International Travel Map

ISBN 9781771292603

This is a new title for ITMB. It focusses on the western half of the European land mass at a much better scale than would be possible for all of Europe. Even at this scale, showing the rail lines and the major roads results in a map with a lot of information on it, but it meets the needs of those travelling around Europe by rail, which is its primary market. It can also be used by those driving, although it would be better for vehicle users to rely on individual country maps. Side 1 covers the British Isles, the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, the Czech Republic, most of Poland, and southern Scandinavia.

ISBN 9781771298483

This is actually two maps, one of Armenia on one side, and Georgia on the other, but with parts of both intermingled. The sheet has two covers, as is usually the case where two separate maps share space. For that matter, a fair portion of Azerbaijan is included, but the focus of the map is on Georgia, with the other countries being included. This is a very interesting corner of far eastern Europe, nestled to the eastern coastline of the Black Sea and the Caucasus Mountains.

Uzbekistan, Kyrgyzstan & Tadjikistan, International Travel Map

ISBN 9781771298490

This time, we have combined the country with the two other Stans on one side, which makes sense given their shape; then, on the reverse side, we have expanded the artwork to show Kyrgyzstan and Tadjikistan to good advantage. The map also includes excellent inset maps of Samarkand, Tashkent, Dushanbe, and Bishkek, which I'm sure all are familiar names. Needless to say, all three countries count as 'adventure' travel.

JONGLEZ
Abandoned Italy (1st ed. Oct. 18)

ISBN 9782361952716

An exceptional photographic report of Abandoned Italy. Robin Brinaert has been travelling around Italy for over eight years in search of these abandoned, forbidden places. He highlights the sometimes dramatic fate of our heritage - a serious reflection on safeguarding. Inside Abandoned Italy: Discover the former hunting lodge of the Duchess of Parma, a spectacular abandoned Moorish castle, the remains of film studios with the scenery from a Pinocchio film, a disused psychiatric asylum, a famous but now-forgotten discotheque in a mock medieval castle, the ruins of a renowned spa hotel ravaged by fire ... This series of photo gallery books, allows one to discover our abandoned, endangered and very often forgotten heritage.
